Australia and Its Policy on Indigenous People
Was Australia's Policy of Removing Mixed Race Children from Their Families Motivated Mainly by Benevolence or Racism?
1880s-1970s

From the early 1800s to the 1970s, Australia systematically removed mixed race children from their Indigenous families, placing them in institutions or with white foster families. Was this removal policy, begun by British colonial authorities and continued by the Australian government, motivated...
